A MIXED MOB OF MAD MINERS String Up a Colored Criminal and Riddle

Him With Bullets.

ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCEL! CHARLESTON, W. Va., September 17,-The sixth lynching occurring in West Virginia in the past seven weeks was enacted about two miles from Bramwell and near Princeton, the county seat of Mercer, just before noon Saturday. The victim of the mob was Samuel Garner, a colored man, who on last Friday attempted an assault on a 9year-old daughter of William Johnston, a resident of Bramwell. The girl made her escape from the negro and informed her father of what had occurred. Soon a party of armed men were in pursuit of Garner, and he was speedily captured and taken before Justice Maxwell, who, after a bearing, during which Garner made a confession, held him for the coming session of the grand jury in November.

A Sheriff's posse, armed with rifles and revolvers, at once took charge of Garner and started with him to Princeton. There was mtense excitement at Bramwell and all along the road toward the county seat as Garner was taken along, and it became evident long before the jail was reached Garner would not nive many minutes should he fall into the hands of the people. About two miles east of Biuefield coal mines the mob, which had been following the posse, and which had been augmented by the posse, and which had been augmented by about 40 white and colored miners, made a concerted rush, overpowered the guards and in a moment Garner was in their hands. Not a moment was lost. A rope was hurrically procured from a neighboring stable and a noose being quickly made it was placed around Garner's neck.

The prisoner seemed paralyzed with fear and could only roll his eyes in terror and mutter broken exclamations and grouns. A few rods from where the capture was made a suitable from where the capture was made a suitable tree was found by the roadside and Garner was pulled up to a projecting limb. He was hauled right up off the ground in regular Western vigilance committee style, and as he slowly vigilance committee siyle, and as he alway choked to death his struggles and contortions were hourible. About the time the body became still some one fired a revolver at the swaying form and this was the signal for a fusilade ing form and this was the signal for a furnished from all sides, probably a score of bullets strik-ing the body. At last accounts Garner had not been out down. Nearly half the mob was com-posed of colored people, and they were as active as the whites in ending Garner's career.

DARING HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Three Tramps Gag a Young Man and Strip Him of His Clothing.

Your, September 17 .- A most daring highway robbery has been perpetrated by three tramps. A young man about 20 years of age named Pins Myers, while passing along South Pine street, in this city, about 10 o'clock, when in front of the Park Opera House, was seized by the ruffians, who, pointing a revolver in his face, forced him to be silent. They soon placed a gag over his mouth and led him to the ounds, where they compelled him to after it was fied around his neck.

When found his feet rested on the bedstead and the head and body hung over it, being supnorted by the rope about the neck. The deceased leaves a wife and six children. He was 44 years of age and a knobbler by trade. He stole. One of the tramps then placed his own ragged outfit at Myers' disposal while he made use of the latter's good suit. The tramps then led their captive back to the spot where they halted him, and with a parting admonition to re-main quiet about the affair, allowed him to go lione. The young man was so frightened that he repaired home, but said nothing about his adventure until yesterday, when he disclosed the fact to his parents. Information was then given to the police. Yesterday afternoon, when given to the poince. I esteroly afternoon, when several of the officers were sitting at their headquarters two tramps were seen coming down North George street. A searching glance disclosed the fact that one of the men was wearing the stolen suit. The officers arrested the man, and when he was brought face to face with young Myers he was completely identified as the person who held the re-volver in Myer's face. The arrested party is young, and claims Cumberland county as his

BERKS REPUBLICANS.

The High and the Anti-High Factions Still Dispute Over the Primaries.

READING, September 17 .- The air is full of claims and counter claims regarding the results of Saturday's Republican primaries. The anti-High men claim that they have not been beaten, and that High will not be able to dic-tate who shall compose the delegation to the next State Convention, while the High men claim that their majority is so great that they will be able to do whatever they think fit with regard to the State delegation and everything else that shall come before the convention.

Frank S. Livingood, County Chairman, says they will concede only 18 districts as certain for High while they claim 28. The High people are still talking of having two to one, but some of them admit the convention will be close. A number of prominent Republican politicians were in town to-day and they are laying plans for an all week fight. The soldier element are working tike Beavers against High as well as several other cotories that have hitherto hada good deal of influence in county affairs, and it is evident that even if they are beaten the revolt will be quite large as to number and influence. In this city the footing up of the total vote cast shows that the anti-High people had about 100 majority, although they did not get a majority of the delegates.

A RAILROAD THIEF ARRESTED. Over $15,000 Worth of Freight Pilfered

From the Rending. NORRISTOWN, September 17 .- Charles Williams has been lodged in the county prison here to await trial on the charge of robbing freight cars on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, and four foreigners, T. Wisnieski, Felix Pudorski, Tan Mackicoories and Frank Cylka, Pudorski, Tan Mackicoories and Frank Cylka, have been locked up as witnesses against him. Williams was arrested at Port Kennedy, where he was delivering stolen goods to Polish and Italian laborers at that point. The goods had been bought by the foreigners and were to be paid for on delivery. Detectives Hamlin and Samuel Cubler, of the railroad detective and samed confer, of the railroad detective force, who have for along time been after the pillerers of freight cars, made the arrest. Some of the articles found in Williams' possession were taken from a case of goods consigned to Comity Wright, in Norriston. The railroad has had about $15,000 worth of goods stolen from the cars within several months.

Lana, O., September 17 .-- Hank Monroe Talbot, the well-known colored barber and sanitarf policeman of this city, is thought to be the missing heir to a fortune of $5,000,000. The property was originally owned by his father and consists of real estate upon which 30 acres of Logansport, Ind., is located. He has employed counsel to prove his claim. The other heirs, 10 children in all, have already employed Congressman Hall, of Defiance. O., to prosecute their claims and have received an offer of $5,000,000, from the different railroads entering Lagansport as payment for the londer convict. So,000,000, from the unterent railroads entering Legansport as payment for the lands occupied by their tracks, depots and freight houses.

The obstacle in the way has been the missing heir, a son named Henry, who had been lost sight of by the other heirs. Henry Taihot says he can fully establish his identity and if he does so will get his share of the immense fortune.

The State Firemen's Convention. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CARLISLE, September 17.-The Pennsylvania State Firemen's Convention, composed of some 300 delegates, met in session here to-day. Eighty companies from throughout the State will be in line, and some 50 hands of music will be here. The convention is the largest ever held.

continues to be the subject of great wonder. The revolvers were all new, apparently just out of the gunstore, and were of approved Smith & Wesson patent. This morning a squad of blacksmiths visited the jail and chained some six or eight of the most daugerous inmates to the floor.

It has just been learned that the rain last night 'prevented an attempt at lyuching of the Nicelys. It seems that several hundred farmers organized to march upon the jail for the purpose of taking out the Nicelys and a number of the other desperadoes, including Lehr, of Pittsburg and stringing them up.
